$.18 per share per share to shareholders of record at the close of business on October 30, 2020. The distribution was paid on November 13, 2020.

15 Describe the quantitative effect of the organizational action on the basis of the security in the hands of a U.S. taxpayer as an adjustment per share or as a percentage of old basis ▶ The above referenced PAGP cash distributions made during the calendar tax year of 2020 are a non-taxable return of capital to the extent of a Class A shareholder's tax basis in each PAGP Class A Share and a reduction in the tax basis of that Class A Share. Any cash distribution to the extent its exceeds a Class A Shareholder's tax basis is taxable as capital gains.

16 Describe the calculation of the change in basis and the data that supports the calculation, such as the market values of securities and the valuation dates ▶ PAGP has filed its 2020 US corporate income tax return and has determined that the cash distributions for 2020 were in excess of its current and accumulated earnings and profits and therefore a non-taxable return of capital.

This Form 8937 is a correction to the respective 2020 Form 8937s that were posted to PAGP's website to clarify and confirm that the original assumptions made on those filings were correct that the 2020 cash distributions were a return of capital and that PAGP did not have any current year or accumulated earnings and profits.
